

Name: _____

Date: _____

ASL 103: Lesson 6
Ordering Desserts: Created Sentences

Multiple Choice. Select the best answer for each statement or question below.

1) YOU ORDERING DESSERT?

What type of sentence structure is used to sign this sentence?

- a) simple
- b) topic-comment
- c) conditional
- d) rhetorical

2) YOU ORDERING DESSERT?

Which TWO things should a signer do to indicate a question is being asked?

- a) sign a question mark
- b) lean forward
- c) nod the head "yes" or "no"
- d) raise eyebrows

3) Yes. The chocolate desserts are delicious. == YES. CHOCOLATE DESSERT DELICIOUS

Why is it unnecessary to sign the plural form of DESSERT when translating to ASL? Because clues are provided in the _____ of the conversation.

- a) emotion
- b) place
- c) context
- d) recipient

4) YES. CHOCOLATE DESSERT DELICIOUS.

How can you reveal how much you like chocolate desserts? By the _____

- a) way you sign
- b) location of the sign
- c) handshapes used
- d) orientation of the hands

5) CHOCOLATE, I ALLERGIC-TO-IT.

What kind of sign is ALLERGIC-TO-IT?

- a) adverb marker
- b) question marker
- c) directional verb
- d) rhetorical question

6) CHOCOLATE, I ALLERGIC-TO-IT.

To indicate what ALLERGIC-to-it is referring to, a signer should sign the _____.

- a) topic first
- b) comment first
- c) person marker first
- d) adverb marker first

7) CHOCOLATE, I ALLERGIC-TO-IT.

Why does Fred move his stationary hand (left hand) away from his body and place "it" to the left of his signing space? This places "chocolates" in this part of his _____.

- a) sign orientation
- b) signing space
- c) mind
- d) social media

8) DOUBT-THAT. YOU ALLERGIC NOTHING.

Why would a signer not sign the pronoun "I" when signing "I doubt that?" Because it is obvious that the signer is talking about _____

- a) the other person
- b) chocolate
- c) allergies
- d) him- or herself

9) DOUBT-THAT. YOU ALLERGIC NOTHING.

What type of structure is the second part of this translation?

- a) an outcome
- b) a condition
- c) an adverb marker
- d) a simple sentence

10) DOUBT-THAT. YOU ALLERGIC NOTHING.

What TWO things should project a feeling of "doubt" or "disbelief" when signing DOUBT-that.

- a) facial expressions
- b) volume of speech
- c) how quickly you sign
- d) body language
- e) leaning forward
- f) blinking the eyes

11) OK, OK. I WILL TRY CHOCOLATE MOUSSE.

What type of sentence is signed after signing "OK, OK."

- a) a simple sentence
- b) person marker
- c) rhetorical
- d) simple yes/no question

12) OK, OK. I WILL TRY CHOCOLATE MOUSSE

When fingerspelling MOUSSE, you should be sure not to _____ with each letter.

- a) nod your head
- b) swing your arm
- c) jerk your hand back and forth
- d) make the handshapes carefully

13) OK, OK. I WILL TRY CHOCOLATE MOUSSE.

You should keep your hand steady when fingerspelling, except for _____

- a) when you're happy
- b) blends (like CH)
- c) plural words
- d) double letters, like S-S

14) OK, OK. I WILL TRY CHOCOLATE MOUSSE.

When signing double letters (like S-S), you should move your hand _____ when signing the second letter.

- a) above your head
- b) near your mouth
- c) to the side slightly
- d) up and down

15) YOU BRAVE MAN.

What type of structure is used to set up this sentence?

- a) conditional
- b) topic-comment
- c) question-topic
- d) simple

16) YOU BRAVE MAN.

What will a signer need to do to show that she is only kidding about the person being brave?

- a) sign quickly
- b) change facial expressions
- c) speak loudly
- d) laugh very hard