

Name: _____

Date: _____

ASL 103: Lesson 8
At the Mall: Created Sentences

Multiple Choice. Select the best answer for each statement or question below.

1) THIS MALL HUGE. What type of ASL translation (sentence) is this?

- a) conditional
- b) adverbial
- c) controversial
- d) simple

2) THIS MALL HUGE.

To make the sign THIS, Fred points to the space where the imaginary _____ is

- a) person
- b) idea
- c) food court
- d) mall

3) THIS MALL HUGE.

How does the signer know how much emphasis to use when signing HUGE in this sentence? It should vary depending upon how _____.

- a) emotional the signer is
- b) large the mall is
- c) energetic the signer is
- d) much you want to go to the mall

4) YES, IT HAS 98 STORES

Why does this sentence have the same ASL translation? Because it is:

- a) a simple sentence
- b) a conditional sentence
- c) not that important
- d) annoying to translate

5) YOU WANT SHOP TOGETHER SEPARATELY WHICH?

When offering someone a choice of two things, it is a common practice in ASL to use the sign _____.

- a) QUESTION MARK
- b) WHEN
- c) WHICH
- d) HOW

6) YOU WANT SHOP TOGETHER SEPARATELY WHICH?

This sentence is broken into parts: A topic (YOU WANT SHOP) and choices. What are the choices?

- a) shop or stay home
- b) together or separately
- c) mall or store
- d) drive or ride the bus

7) YOU WANT SHOP TOGETHER SEPARATELY WHICH?

Why should a signer pause slightly at the end of the sign TOGETHER. This helps separate the _____ in the question.

- a) topic from the choices
- b) question from the topic
- c) choices from the question
- d) choices offered

8) SEPARATELY. I-MEET-YOU HERE TWO-HOURS.

Which directional verb sign is used to set up the translation of the second sentence?

- a) I-HELP-you
- b) I-MEET-you
- c) there is no directional verb sign
- d) you-MEET-me

9) SEPARATELY. I-MEET-YOU HERE TWO-HOURS.

How could you modify the sign HOUR to let your friend know you want to meet in 5 hours?

- a) add 5 to the sign HOUR
- b) sign hour followed by 5
- c) use 5 for both handshapes
- d) sign you-MEET-me with the number 5

10) SEPARATELY. I-MEET-YOU HERE TWO-HOURS.

Why is the directional verb sign I-MEET-you moved from Sally towards Fred?

- a) She likes Fred
- b) Fred was angry
- c) She is the "I" and he is the "you"
- d) She got confused

11) TWO-HOURS. I HAVE-TO BUY ONE THING. Why does Fred pause after signing 2-HOURS?

- a) he was getting tired
- b) he wasn't sure how to sign
- c) to give Sally time to translate ASL to English
- d) to set up the next sentence

12) YOU WANT FOLLOW-ME?

Why is the sign ME not made when signing FOLLOW-ME? The pronoun "me" is already _____ into the sign FOLLOW-me.

- a) near
- b) incorporated
- c) signed
- d) spoken

13) YOU WANT FOLLOW-ME?

How does Sally help Fred understand she wants HIM to follow HER? She puts her right hand (representing Fred) behind her _____ (representing herself).

- a) back
- b) face
- c) neck
- d) left hand

14) YOU WANT FOLLOW-ME?

Which type of question does Sally ask in this sentence?

- a) rhetorical
- b) yes/no
- c) conditional
- d) profound

15) I SHOP MYSELF WHY? GOOD BOOKSTORE CLOSE-BY.

What does Fred use to answer Sally's question and explain what he's doing?

- a) a rhetorical question
- b) a conditional statement
- c) an adverb marker
- d) a person marker

16) I SHOP MYSELF WHY? GOOD BOOKSTORE CLOSE-BY.

When you pause after a rhetorical question, what should you NOT do?

- a) hold onto the last sign
- b) look at the other person
- c) drop your hands
- d) shrug your shoulders

17) I SHOP MYSELF WHY? GOOD BOOKSTORE CLOSE-BY.

What should you do when pausing after a rhetorical question?

- a) drop your hands
- b) nod your head
- c) hold onto the last sign
- d) shrug your shoulders