Providing Interactive Web-Based Instruction in American Sign Language

In order to enable Michigan schools to offer Signing Online in the classroom setting, the program is currently in the process of aligning its curriculum to the Michigan Department of Education's World Language Standards and Benchmarks. This process should make it easier for school districts in other states to determine whether or not Signing Online meets their state standards and benchmarks. The outline below provides a glance at what Signing Online will offer in correlation to Michigan's Standards and Benchmarks.

Students learning ASL should be able to...
